and put set an open factor in carry become a	COUNTRY Him Party For	SSIFICATION SIGNATURE OF TROPER PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF TH	32-8R457R
25X1X PLACE OBTAINED  25X1C  DATE OF CONTENT October 1050 to early Jenuary 1053  25X1C  DATE OBTAINED  25X1C  25X1A  25X1	TOPIC L'Ilitary Informat	tion from the Area of Veganous T
DATE OF CONTENT October 1050 to early Jenuary 1051  25X1A		。 	25X1A
DATE OBTAINED  25X1A  2	EVALUATION 25X1	1Xplace obtained	25X1A
25X1X  1. Prior to mid-Docember 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Vesaprem (P hb/D 73), in, the read fork formed by the highways to Balatonalmadi (F hb/D 77) and relacors (F hb/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being enlarged. An acquaintence of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Rakosi Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Vesaprem.  2. About 30 armored vohicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovarca (F hb/T 19) in mid-December 1950. According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were the only troops stationed in Tata Tovarca, as the border guard units stationed there prior to the summer of 1950 had been transferred to Banhida (2 hb/T 91). *  3. In October 1950, ammunition boxes were transferred, at the Devecsor (F hb/D 30) railroad station, from boxears to trucks by Hungarian soldiers. The ammunition was taken to an amunition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Devecsor.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inota (P hb/D 39) and parbed in an open field. In early December, and the statillory pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oslew (P hb/D 39) and parbed in an open field. In early December, the trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillory pieces in Cslaw. The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillory pieces meant the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, Hungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the premises of the former Danwis waspons factory which is located in the woods about h.5 he south of the center of Vesaprem, went of the road to Felscore. Britch buildings on the premises of the former Danwis waspons factory which is located in the woods about h.5 he south of the center of Vesaprem, went of the road to Felscore. Britch buildings on the premise of the former Danwis waspons factory of the road to Felscore. B	DATE OF CONTENT October		AL MANUAL PLANT AND AND THE PROPERTY OF THE PR
25X1X  1. Prior to mid-Docember 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Vesaprem (P hb/D 73), in, the read fork formed by the highways to Balatonalmadi (F hb/D 77) and relacors (F hb/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being enlarged. An acquaintence of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Rakosi Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Vesaprem.  2. About 30 armored vohicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovarca (F hb/T 19) in mid-December 1950. According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were the only troops stationed in Tata Tovarca, as the border guard units stationed there prior to the summer of 1950 had been transferred to Banhida (2 hb/T 91). *  3. In October 1950, ammunition boxes were transferred, at the Devecsor (F hb/D 30) railroad station, from boxears to trucks by Hungarian soldiers. The ammunition was taken to an amunition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Devecsor.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inota (P hb/D 39) and parbed in an open field. In early December, and the statillory pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oslew (P hb/D 39) and parbed in an open field. In early December, the trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillory pieces in Cslaw. The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillory pieces meant the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, Hungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the premises of the former Danwis waspons factory which is located in the woods about h.5 he south of the center of Vesaprem, went of the road to Felscore. Britch buildings on the premises of the former Danwis waspons factory which is located in the woods about h.5 he south of the center of Vesaprem, went of the road to Felscore. Britch buildings on the premise of the former Danwis waspons factory of the road to Felscore. B	DATE OBTAINED	25X1C DATE PREPARED	) L June 1957
1. Prior to mid-Docember 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Vesaprem (P 18/D 73), in, the road fork formed by the highway to Balatomianadi (P 18/D 77) and relations (P 18/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being emberged, an acquaintence of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battallon was subordinate to the Rakesi Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Vesaprem.  2. About 30 armored vehicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Towares (P 18/Y 19) in mid-December 1950, According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were the only troops stationed in Tata Towares (P 18/Y 19) in mid-December 1950, According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were the only troops stationed in Tata Towares, as the border guard units stationed there prior to the summer of 1950 had been transferred to Banhida (Q 18/Y 94). *  3. In October 1950, ancaunition boxes were transferred, at the Devecser (P 18/D 38) relived station, from boxes at to trucks by lungarian soldiers. The ancumition was taken to an anaunition dump in the wooded area about six has southwest of Devecser.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inota (P 18/D 39) that artillery pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oskue (P 18/D 39) and parked in an open field. In early December, the trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces scened to be new.  10 to 15 Schliers who were seen near the material were Russians.  5. In mid-Noverber, lungarian troops with red service color were observed several, times on the premises of the former Damwia respons factory which is located in the woods about 1,5 has couth of the center of Vesaprem, west of the road to Felsoors, Brick buildings cannot large the referred to the troops in the factory area as A31 troops, lowever, no artillery pieces or other weapons were observed, Officers of the unit were billeted	REFERENCES	25X1A	The state of the s
1. Prior to mid-December 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Vessprem (P hb/D 70), in the road fork formed by the highways to Balatenalmadi (F hb/D 77) and felsoors (P hb/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being enlerged, an acquaintance of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Rakcai Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Vessprems.  2. About 30 armored vehicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovaros (P hb/F hg) in mid-December 1950, According to a local resident, the lungarian treops in the new barracks installation were the only treops stationed in Tata Tovaros, as the border guard units stationed there prior to the surmer of 1950 had been transferred to Ramhida (Q hb/Y 9h). *  3. In October 1950, amunition boxes were transferred, at the Deveceer (P hb/D 30) railroad station, from boxcars to trucks by Hungarian soldiers. The amunition was taken to an amunition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Deveceer.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of linets (P hb/D 39) that artillery pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oskue (P hb/D 39) and purked in an open field. In early December, the trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces seemed to be new.  10 to 15 Schliers who were seen near the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, lungarian troops with red service color were observed several, times on the premises of the former Danwia meapons featory which is located in the woods about h.5 km south of the center of Vessprem, restonts referred to the troops in the Falsory area as Ash twoops. However, no artillery pieces or other weapons were observed, Officers of the unit were billeted in Vessprem, Fajsz (Y 6/: 20),	PAGES ENCLOS	SURES (NO. & TYPE)
1. Prior to mid-Docember 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Veszprem (P 16/D 77), in_the road fork formed by the highways to Balatomalmadi (P 16/D 77) and Pelscors (P 18/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being enlarged, An acquaintance of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Rakesi Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Veszprem.  2. About 30 armored vehicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovaros (P 18/V 19) in mid-December 1950, According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were the only troops stationed in Tata Tovaros, as the border guard units stationed the prior to the summer of 1950 had been transferred to Bambida (Q 18/Y 94). *  3. In October 1950, ammunition boxes were transferred, at the Devecser (P 18/D 38) railroad station, from boxears to trucks by lungarian soldiers. The ammunition was taken to an armunition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Devecser.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inota (P 18/D 69) that artillery pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oskue (P 18/D 39) and parked in an open field. In early Docember, trucks and canvas-covered artillery pieces in Oskue, The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces seemed to be new.  10 to 15 Soldiers who were seem near the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, lungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the premises of the former Damuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods should 1.5 % south of the center of Veszprem, west of the road to Felsoors. Brick buildings canoulfaged by shrubs planted on their flat roofs were recognized from this road. Veszprem residents referred to the troops in the factory area as AAA troops. However, no artillery pieces or other weapons were observed. Officers of the unit were billeted in Veszprem, Fajzz (Y 6/: 20),	REMARKS		ALLES AND
1. Prior to mid-Docember 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Veszprem (P 16/D 77), in_the road fork formed by the highways to Balatomalmadi (P 16/D 77) and Pelscors (P 18/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being enlarged, An acquaintance of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Rakesi Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Veszprem.  2. About 30 armored vehicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovaros (P 18/V 19) in mid-December 1950, According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were the only troops stationed in Tata Tovaros, as the border guard units stationed the prior to the summer of 1950 had been transferred to Bambida (Q 18/Y 94). *  3. In October 1950, ammunition boxes were transferred, at the Devecser (P 18/D 38) railroad station, from boxears to trucks by lungarian soldiers. The ammunition was taken to an armunition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Devecser.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inota (P 18/D 69) that artillery pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oskue (P 18/D 39) and parked in an open field. In early Docember, trucks and canvas-covered artillery pieces in Oskue, The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces seemed to be new.  10 to 15 Soldiers who were seem near the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, lungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the premises of the former Damuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods should 1.5 % south of the center of Veszprem, west of the road to Felsoors. Brick buildings canoulfaged by shrubs planted on their flat roofs were recognized from this road. Veszprem residents referred to the troops in the factory area as AAA troops. However, no artillery pieces or other weapons were observed. Officers of the unit were billeted in Veszprem, Fajzz (Y 6/: 20),	Lio.
1. Prior to mid-Docember 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Veszprem (P 18/D 77), in_the road fork formed by the highways to Balatomalmadi (P 18/D 77) and Pelscors (P 18/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being enlerged, An acquaintence of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Rakeai Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Veszprem.  2. About 30 armored vehicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovaros (P 18/Y 19) in mid-December 1950, According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were the only troops stationed in Tata Tovaros, as the border guard units stationed the prior to the summer of 1950 had been transferred to Banhida (Q 18/Y 94). *  3. In October 1950, ammunition boxes were transferred, at the Devecser (P 18/D 38) railroad station, from boxears to trucks by lungarian soldiers. The ammunition was taken to an armunition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Devecser.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inota (P 18/D 89) that artillery pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oskue (P 18/D 39) and parked in an open field. In early December, trucks and canvas-covered artillery pieces in Oskue, The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces seemed to be new.  10 to 15 soldiers who were seem near the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, lungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the preises of the former Danuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods about 1.5 is south of the center of Veszprem, west of the road to Felsoors. Brick buildings of second to be harded on their flat roofs were recognized from this road. Veszprem residents referred to the troops in the factory area as AAA troops. However, no artillery pleecs or other weapons were observed, Officers of the unit were billeted in Veszprem, Fajzz (Y 6/: 20),	· VA	ARY 614
1. Prior to mid-December 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Vesprem (P 18/D 73), in the road fork formed by the highways to Balatonalmadi (P 18/D 77) and Felsoors (P 18/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being emberged. An acquaintance of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Racci Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Veszprem.  2. About 30 armored vohicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovarco (P 18/T 19) in mid-December 1950. According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were tendy troops stationed in Tata Tovarco, as the border guard units stationed there prior to the summer of 1950 had been transferred to Banhida (Q 18/Y 91). *  3. In October 1950, ammunition boxes were transferred, at the Devecser (P 18/D 38) railroad station, from boxears to trucks by Hungarian soldiers. The ammunition was taken to an ammunition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Devecser.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inota (P 18/D 89) that artillory pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oslane (P 18/D 39) and parked in an open field. In early December, the trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillory pieces in Oslane. The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillory pieces seemed to be new.  10 to 15 soldiers who were seen near the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, Hungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the premises of the former Danuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods about 1.5 km south of the center of Veszprem, weat of the road to Felsoors, Brick buildings ammunificated by shrubs planted on their flat roofs were recognized from this road. Veszprem residents referred to the troops in the factory area as AAA troops. However, no artillery pieces or other weapons were observed. Officers of the unit were bulleted in Veszpr	#В N.О. И на подвеждения в на предествения по постоя по постоя по постоя по постоя по постоя по по по по по по	Married and the first developed the requirement of a the transitions (Color of the Color of the
1. Prior to mid-December 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Vesprem (P 18/D 73), in the road fork formed by the highways to Balatonalmadi (P 18/D 77) and Felsoors (P 18/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being emberged. An acquaintance of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Racci Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Veszprem.  2. About 30 armored vohicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovarco (P 18/T 19) in mid-December 1950. According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were tendy troops stationed in Tata Tovarco, as the border guard units stationed there prior to the summer of 1950 had been transferred to Banhida (Q 18/Y 91). *  3. In October 1950, ammunition boxes were transferred, at the Devecser (P 18/D 38) railroad station, from boxears to trucks by Hungarian soldiers. The ammunition was taken to an ammunition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Devecser.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inota (P 18/D 89) that artillory pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oslane (P 18/D 39) and parked in an open field. In early December, the trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillory pieces in Oslane. The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillory pieces seemed to be new.  10 to 15 soldiers who were seen near the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, Hungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the premises of the former Danuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods about 1.5 km south of the center of Veszprem, weat of the road to Felsoors, Brick buildings ammunificated by shrubs planted on their flat roofs were recognized from this road. Veszprem residents referred to the troops in the factory area as AAA troops. However, no artillery pieces or other weapons were observed. Officers of the unit were bulleted in Veszpr	yangan dalam kananan karan dagi mengapangkan dalam kanan di sebahan dan kepadaman anan pagan sadahan dan bigan	Benganning dispute an part interesting model, and parties for each in the first several and except an extension of the contract of the contrac
1. Prior to mid-December 1950, the barracks installation on the southeastern perimeter of Vesprem (P 18/D 73), in the road fork formed by the highways to Balatomalmadt (P 18/D 77) and Felscors (P 18/D 77), quartered a battallon. The installation was being enlarged. An acquaintance of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Racci Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Vesprem.  2. About 30 armored vehicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovarco (P 18/F 19) in mid-December 1950. According to a local resident, the lungarian troops in the new barracks installation were tendy troops stationed in Tata Tovarco, as the border guard units stationed there prior to the summer of 1950 had been transferred to Banhida (Q 18/Y 91). *  3. In October 1950, ammunition boxes were transferred, at the Devecser (P 18/D 38) railroad station, from boxears to trucks by lungarian soldiers. The ammunition was taken to an ammunition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Devecser.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inets (P 18/D 89) that artillery pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oskue (P 18/D 39) and parked in an open field. In early December, the trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces in Oskue. The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces seemed to be new.  5. In mid-November, lungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the premises of the former Danuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods about 1.5 km south of the center of Vesprem, weat of the road to Felscore. Brick buildings of the former Danuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods about 1.5 km south of the center of Vesprem, weat of the road to Felscore. Brick buildings of the former Danuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods about 1.5 km south of the center of Vesprem, weat of the road to Felscore. Brick buildings of the former Danu			27 ////
perimeter of Veszprem (P h$/D 73), in the road fork formed by the highways to Balatonalmadi (P h$/D 77) and Felscors (P h$/D 77), quartered a battalion. The installation was being enlarged. An acquaintance of source, who served with the unit there, said that this battalion was subordinate to the Rakosi Regiment. Source heard that an artillery unit was also stationed in Veszprem.  2. About 30 armored vehicles were stationed in the new barracks installation in Tata-Tovaros (P h$/Y h$) in mid-December 1950. According to a local resident, the Hungarian troops in the new barracks installation were the only troops stationed in Tata Tovaros, as the border guard units entained there prior to the surmer of 1950 had been transferred to Banhida (Q h$/Y 9h). *  3. In October 1950, amminition boxes were transferred, at the Devecser (P h$/D 38) railroad station, from boxears to trucks by Hungarian soldiers. The ammunition was taken to an amminition dump in the wooded area about six km southwest of Devecser.  4. In October 1950, source learned from a resident of Inota (P h$/D 89) that artillery pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oskue (P h$/D 39) and parked in an open field. In early December, trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces in Oskue. The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces seemed to be new.  10 to 15 soldiers who were seen near the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, Hungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the premises of the former Danuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods about h.5 km south of the center of Veszprem, west of the road to Felsoors. Brick buildings _carma_hlaged by shrubs planted on their flat roofs were recognized from this road. Veszprem residents referred to the troops in the factory area as AhA troops. However, no artillery pieces or other weapons were observed. Officers of the unit were billeted in Veszprem, Fajez (Y 6/E 20),			25X1X
artillery pieces and prime movers had been unloaded near Oskue (Ph8/D 39) and parked in an open field. In early December, trucks and canvas-covered artillery pieces in Oskue. The trucks showed signs of extensive use while the artillery pieces seemed to be new.  10 to 15 soldiers who were seen near the material were Russians.  5. In mid-November, Hungarian troops with red service color were observed several times on the premises of the former Danuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods about 1.5 km south of the center of Veszprem, west of the road to Felsoors. Brick buildings exhout flaged by shrubs planted on their flat roofs were recognized from this road. Veszprem residents referred to the troops in the factory area as AAA troops. However, no artillery pieces or other weapons were observed. Officers of the unit were billeted in Veszprem, Fajsz (Y 6/E 20),	to Balatonalmadi installation was unit there, said Source heard that 2. About 30 armored Tata-Tovaros (P the Hungarian tr stationed in Tat the summer of 19 3. In October 1950, railroad station was taken to an	i (F 43/D 77) and Felsoors (F 48/s being enlarged. An acquaintance if that this battalion was subordist an artillery unit was also stand vehicles were stationed in the 18/Y 49) in mid-December 1950. A roops in the new barracks install ta Tovaros, as the border guard un 250 had been transferred to Banhi, ammunition boxes were transferred, from boxears to trucks by Hung	'D 77), quartered a battalion. The e of source, who served with the late to the Rakosi Regiment. It in the barracks installation in according to a local resident, lation were the only troops hits stationed there prior to ida (Q h8/Y 94). *  red, at the Devecser (P h8/D 38) garian soldiers. The ammunition times on the premises of the former Danuvia weapons factory which is located in the woods about 1.5 km south of the center of Veszprem, west of the road to Felsoors. Brick buildings canonificated by shrubs planted on their flat roofs were recognized from this road. Veszprem residents referred to the troops in the factory area as AAA troops. However, no artillery pieces or other weapons were observed. Officers of the unit were billeted in Veszprem, Fajsz (Y 6/1: 20),	5X1A artillery pieces and parked in an canvas-covered a uso while the ar	s and prime movers had been unloan open field. In early December, sartillery pieces in Oskue. The trrtillery pieces seemed to be new.	aded near Oskue (P 48/D 39) trucks and rucks showed signs of extensive the
CLASSIFICATION SECTION US OFFICIALS ONLY	times on the pre the woods about Felsoors. Brick were recognized factory area as	emises of the former Danuvia weap 1.5 km south of the center of Ve buildings canouflaged by shrubs from this road, Veszprem residen AM troops, However, no artiller	cons factory which is located in eszprem, west of the road to splanted on their flat roofs ats referred to the troops in the cy pieces or other weapons were partition of the state of the s

Me Change In Class.
Declassified
Class. Changed To: TS SC
Auth.: HR 70-2

Approved For Release 2001/03/06: CIA-RDP82-0

Approved For Release 2001/03/06: CIA-RDP82-0

Approved For Release 2001/03/06: CIA-RDP82-00457R008000160007-3

and Nemesvamos (P L3/D 68).

- 6. In Jutas (P 43/D 68) prior to mid-November, Hungarian troops with green, red, blue, and black service colors were observed in the former NCO school which is located just southeast of the Veszprem-Kuelsoe railroad station. Units of company size were frequently seen leaving the installation. No artillery pieces or armored vehicles were observed.
- 7. No Soviet units were observed in and around Veszprem prior to mid-November 1950.
- 8. Soviet soldiers were last observed in the Hajmasker (P h8/D 79) area in the summer of 1950.
- 9. At the end of Jeptember, a Hungarian tank unit occupied the barracks installation southwest of the Gyoengyoes (Q \h8/J 2\h8/J 2\h8/J
- 10. Hungarian troops and trucks were seen in the hutment near the old copper mine north of Gyoengyoessolymos (@ 1/3/J 25) in the summer of 1950.

  According to Gyoengyoes residents, a motorized infantry unit was stationed in the hutment.

25X1A

Comment. Tata Tovaros was previously reported to be the post of a motorized infantry unit and a tank unit. See

25X1A

